RULES OF THE LIBRARY.

I. The Library will be open from 10 o'clock, A. M., till 3 P. M., and from 4 till 6 P. M., daily throughout the year, excepting during the months of July and August, and on Saturday afternoons and Sundays; at which times it is closed.

II. The following persons only shall be allowed to use the Library.

1. Those members of the Association and Subscribers to the Library, whose payments are not, at the time, in arrear. 2. Judges of the Courts sitting within this city. 3. Members of the Bar from the country, attending the sessions in this city of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania, or of the Circuit Court of the United States.

III. In order to show whether the person sending to the Library for a book, be entitled to have it sent to him, and to confine the use of the Library to persons who are entitled to such use, it is ordered that no book be sent from the Library Room, except upon an order signed by some gentleman entitled to the privilege of the Library, and for his own use.

IV. The assessment on shares is $10 a year, payable always in advance, on the first Monday of March in each year. The Treasurer sends to each member his bill within ten days after such first Monday. If payment be not made within one month after such first Monday, there is added a charge of ten per cent., and if the whole be not paid within six months after such first Monday, the share of such delinquent stockholder becomes forfeit. Gentlemen of the Bar, who are not members of the Law Association, can become subscribers to the Library, by paying, during the first two years after their admission to the bar, $6 a year; during the ensuing two years, $8 a year; and afterwards $12 a year. Subscription money is payable always in advance. Persons desirous to subscribe, will please to make known their wish to the attendant at the Library.

V. No person indebted to the Association for arrears of assessment or subscription money, shall be allowed to use the books while he continues in such delinquency; and it is positively ordered, that all books be refused to every such applicant.

VI. No book shall be taken from the Library Room, by any person whomsoever, except for the purpose of being used in the court-rooms. Books cannot be borrowed from this Library.

VII. Conversation in the Library Room is forbidden. Gentlemen who wish to converse, will be pleased to withdraw to the Conversation Room, on the east side of the hall. The Library Room is appropriated to study.
